FOREIGN ENTRIES—JAPAN CUP

At Tokyo Racecourse

OUIJA BOARD(GB, 5m, bay)

--jogged 1 lap

(exercised from 6:53 to 7:05 ridden by Jason Tate, on dirt)

“She’s in the same good condition. She’s fully tuned up and ready for the race.”

(Comments taken from Edward Dunlop)

“It was a great year for OUIJA BOARD. She was able to win in very big races both in Ascot and the United States. Seeing her this morning, she looks much better than last year when she was here for the Japan Cup. She hasn’t gotten any heavier but her build looks more firm and stout, and I’m very happy with that.”

FREEDONIA (GB, 4f, bay)

--lightly cantered 3/4 lap

(exercised from 6:47 to 7:00 ridden by Thierry Gillet, on dirt)

“We’re prepared for the race. Our jockey mounted her this morning, and I’m happy with how she responded.”

(Comments taken from John Hammond)

“She’s much more relaxed than when she was in the United States. Her fever after the flight isn’t anything to worry about anymore. She felt very good this morning when I rode her.”
